

COMMENDATION: EUGENE HAINES

It is with great honor and immense admiration that we extend our heartfelt commendation to Eugene Haines, the esteemed Founder of Haines Fleet Management, on the remarkable occasion of being awarded the All-Ireland Business Foundation Presidential Medal for Business Excellence by the AIBF.

Eugene Haines, a visionary entrepreneur, and industry leader, has exemplified the essence of excellence and dedication in the realm of fleet management. Under his insightful leadership, Haines Fleet Management has not only weathered the test of time but has emerged as a true beacon of distinction within the industry.

Originally established as Joe Duffy Leasing in 1973 and transformed into an independent entity through Eugene's astute management, Haines Fleet Management stands as a testament to resilience, innovation, and unwavering commitment. With an impressive track record and a credit rating that attests to their integrity, Haines Fleet Management has consistently delivered excellence to their clientele.

Eugene's strategic approach to business is evident in the company's ethos of delivering value to customers on a car-by-car basis. This philosophy underscores their dedication to offering competitive rates, ensuring that each transaction reflects the company's commitment to lasting value and customer satisfaction. This approach has not only garnered customer loyalty but has also positioned Haines Fleet Management as a trusted partner in the realm of fleet management.

Eugene's continuous pursuit of knowledge and personal growth, as evidenced by his engagement with studies in Practical Philosophy, Dale Carnegie, Educo, Robin Banks, and his practice of meditation and yoga, reflects his holistic approach to both business and life. This commitment to self-improvement has undoubtedly played a pivotal role in shaping his success and guiding his leadership.

Eugene's unique perspective on travel, favoring varied routes to destinations over conventional modes of transportation, is a reflection of his innovative mindset and willingness to embrace novel approaches. This propensity for thinking outside the box has undoubtedly contributed to the innovative spirit that permeates Haines Fleet Management.
