HAINES FLEET MANAGEMENT

The All-Ireland Business Foundation is proud to confer upon Haines Fleet the 5 In A Row Business All-Star All-Ireland Independent Fleet Solutions Company of the Year 2025-26 Accreditation, a rare distinction that celebrates sustained leadership, trust, and performance in Ireland's fleet management sector.

Haines Fleet is a fully independent fleet management and leasing company based in Swords, Co. Dublin, serving clients both domestically and nationally. Formerly part of Joe Duffy Leasing, the business was acquired and transformed into an independent entity in 2004 under Eugene Haines. Today it offers service across the leasing, sourcing, maintenance, repair, and fleet operations domains.

To hold All-Star status for five consecutive years is no small feat. It demonstrates that Haines Fleet has not simply met high standards once, but has woven excellence into the fabric of its culture. Clients and partners can rest assured that this company is not chasing accolades, but upholding them consistently even through changing industry dynamics.

Under the performance pillar, Haines Fleet reliably delivers on complex fleet solutions: its core competence lies in designing, sourcing, managing, and maintaining vehicle fleets for businesses of varied sizes. Their ability to negotiate with local suppliers, monitor usage, and provide flexibility in service ensures that fleet clients receive value without compromise.

Trust is central in the fleet business. Clients entrust Haines with the lifeblood of their operations: the vehicles, reliability, budgets, and compliance. Over multiple years, Haines has earned such trust by being transparent, accountable, responsive and independent free from manufacturer or captive influence. Their status as an independent provider further underscores that their advice is aligned with client interest, not external agendas.

In the dimension of customer centricity, Haines Fleet listens to client needs, whether in flexibility of lease terms, maintenance response, mileage, vehicle upgrades or end of lease conditions. Their approach is not transactional but relational; many clients stay for years. The culture of "small enough to care, experienced enough to deliver" reflects their customer-first mindset.

This 5 In A Row accreditation conveys more than prestige: it affirms that Haines Fleet is a benchmark for independent fleet management in Ireland. The All-Ireland Business Foundation congratulates Haines Fleet for this exceptional milestone, celebrating their resilience, reputation, and continued leadership in fleet solutions. May they drive forward with integrity, innovation, and client service for many years ahead.

Congratulations!
